Meetings:

The Chapter held two meetings:

ARLIS/WNY Spring 2010 Meeting, Thursday, April 8, 2010 at University at Buffalo's Anderson Gallery, hosted by Dorothy Tao

The program consisted of a business meeting; a lecture, "Frank Lloyd Wright's Buffalo Venture" by Jack Quinan, Distinguished Service Professor, University at Buffalo at Anderson Gallery (<http://www.ubartgalleries.org/>); and a tour of the Darwin Martin House Complex and new Visitor Center (<http://www.darwinmartinhouse.org/>); with a lunch buffet in Anderson Gallery and a closing reception at The Lunch Box, Delaware Park, Buffalo. [Number of attendees: 11 members; 6 guests]

ARLIS/WNY Fall 2010 Meeting, Friday, November 5, 2010 at Munson-Williams-Proctor Arts Institute, hosted by Kathy Corcoran

The program included a Business Meeting; a tour of "Look for Beauty: Philip Johnson and Art Museum Design" and the Ann Reichlin installation "Counterpoint" with Mary Murray, Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art, MWPAl; and a tour of Sculpture Space (<http://sculpturespace.org/>) for a brief presentation on Griffiss Internationals Sculpture Park (<http://sculpturespace.org/sculpturepark/>). We also met artists in residence who talked about their current projects; viewed Ann Reichlin's "Translucent House" (<http://sculpturespace.org/reichlin2008/>). Lunch was in the Student Center Dining Hall

Activities of the Chapter

ARLIS/WNY addressed these issues at our Spring and Fall 2010 meetings:

- Revised our Bylaws to allow special elections and electronic voting.

- Established a Student Travel Award for Chapter Meetings for students or perspective art librarians for travel support to the ARLIS/WNY chapter meetings. The Vice-President will oversee the award.
Alison Bosch received the Student Travel Award to attend the Spring 2010 meeting; Katie O'Connell, MSLIS Candidate, 2011 from Syracuse University was the recipient of our Fall 2010 Student Award.
- Approved free registration to ARLIS/WNY Chapter meeting for students.

- Selected Kathy Corcoran, Munson-Williams-Proctor Arts Institute, Utica, NY as our 2010 ARLIS/NA conference Award winner. She attended the ARLIS/NA conference in Boston.

- Continued to discuss our involvement with the 2012 ARLIS/NA Conference, Toronto.
  - 1) Margaret English (ARLIS/NA Ontario Chapter), Kate Cunningham Hendrix (SUNYAB), Karen McKenzie (ARLIS/NA Ontario Chapter) attended our Spring meeting and presented a status report on conference planning.
  - 2) Stephanie Frontz and Kari Horowicz attended the Ontario Chapter Fall meeting.
  - 3) Fall 2010, we discussed the conference theme, "Coloring Outside the Lines" and the ARLIS/NA conference tour from Toronto to Buffalo as well as requirements for the conference website.

- Discussed critical issues relating to the ARLIS/NA Strategic Plan.

- Began a Fundraising committee to help support our activities and awards.

- Created a Facebook page for ARLIS/WNY.

- Continued to add content to our website.

- Started a "Schedule of Activities" for ARLIS/WNY that corresponds to the one for ARLIS/NA.

- Approved the meeting site for Spring 2011: Scholes Library, New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University, Alfred, NY, hosted by Sherman Clarke.
